

The Political Economy of European Wine Regulation

By Giulia Meloni and Jo Swinnen

This paper reviews the most important regulations in the EU wine market, how they have distorted markets, and attempts at reform. It then uses a historical political economy perspective in an attempt to explain the causes and roots of the wine regulations.